Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 14, 2015, Marathon Patent Group, Inc., a Nevada corporation (“Marathon”), entered into a Business Combination Agreement (the “Business Combination Agreement”) with Marathon Group SA, a Luxembourg société anonyme (“Holdco”), and Uniloc Luxembourg SA, a Luxembourg société anonyme (“Uniloc”), and Uniloc Corporation Pty. Limited, an Australian corporation (“Uniloc Australia”).

Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions in the Business Combination Agreement and on the terms in the Business Combination Agreement, at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Business Combination Agreement (the “Closing”):

- All of Marathon’s outstanding shares, warrants and options will be exchanged, for approximately 45% of Holdco’s fully-diluted capitalization, resulting in Marathon becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdco; and
- Uniloc will transfer substantially all of its assets and liabilities to a new wholly-owned Luxembourg subsidiary (“New Uniloc”). Following that transfer, Uniloc will merge with and into Holdco, resulting in New Uniloc becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdco.
- Holdco has the option to acquire from Uniloc Australia its Uniloc USA Holdings subsidiary.

As consideration for the Uniloc transactions, Holdco will issue its ordinary shares and assume Uniloc options and warrants representing approximately 55% of Holdco’s fully diluted capitalization.

The Closing is subject to customary conditions, including:

- the approval of the Business Combination Agreement by Marathon stockholders;
- the approval of the Business Combination by the Uniloc shareholders;
- receipt of necessary third party consents, including, among others, from affiliates of Fortress Investment Group, which is a lender to both Marathon and Uniloc;
- the truth and accuracy of the other party’s representations and warranties in the Business Combination Agreement;
- the non-occurrence of a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Business Combination Agreement) with respect to the other party;
- listing of the Holdco ordinary shares on NASDAQ;
- new offers of employment being made to senior management of Marathon and Uniloc; and
- the performance by the other party of all of its obligations and compliance with all of its covenants under the Business Combination Agreement in all material respects.

The Business Combination Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by each of Marathon and Uniloc for a transaction of this nature. Marathon and Uniloc each have agreed, among other things, subject to the exceptions in the Business Combination Agreement, prior to termination of the agreement, not to directly or indirectly:

- initiate, solicit, or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage, or participate or engage in any negotiations, inquiries or discussions with respect to any Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Business Combination Agreement),
- in connection with any potential Acquisition Proposal, disclose or furnish any nonpublic information or data to any Person concerning Marathon’s business or properties or afford any Person other than Uniloc or its Representatives access to its properties, books, or records, except as required by Law or pursuant to a governmental request for information,
- enter into or execute, or propose to enter into or execute, any agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or
- approve, endorse, recommend or make or authorize any public statement, recommendation, or solicitation in support of any Acquisition Proposal. Marathon will, and will direct its Representatives to, cease immediately and cause to be terminated all discussions and negotiations that commenced prior to the date of this Agreement regarding any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal.

In addition, each of the parties agreed to use, subject to the terms and conditions of the Business Combination Agreement, commercially reasonable efforts to cause the transactions to be consummated as promptly as practicable.

The Business Combination Agreement also requires each of Marathon and Uniloc to call and hold shareholders' meetings, as expeditiously as possible, and requires the board of directors of each of Marathon and Uniloc to recommend approval of the transactions. Holdco will prepare and file with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement on Form S-4 in connection with the Marathon vote and registration of the Ordinary Shares.

The Business Combination Agreement may be terminated by mutual written consent of the parties. Among other termination rights, the Business Combination Agreement also contains termination rights giving either party a termination right if:

- the transactions have not been consummated by March 1, 2016, but this date may be extended to May 31, 2016 if regulatory approvals are not timely obtained;
- the Uniloc and/or Marathon shareholder approvals are not obtained;
- the other party breaches its representations and covenants and such breach would result in the closing conditions not being satisfied; and
- each of Uniloc and Marathon has the right to terminate the Business Combination Agreement to accept a superior proposal on the express conditions described in the Business Combination Agreement, including, among other things, no violation of the restrictions on soliciting an alternative proposal.

The foregoing descriptions of terms of the Business Combination Agreement and Support Agreements are not complete and are qualified in their entirety by the Business Combination Agreement which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this report and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On August 17, 2015, Marathon and Uniloc will make a presentation to investors via conference telephone in order to discuss the proposed business combination. Marathon and Uniloc are expected to make similar presentations in the future. Marathon's and Uniloc's presentation regarding the transaction is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

On August 14, 2015, Marathon and Uniloc issued a press release with respect to the proposed business combination. A copy of that press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2

As provided in General Instruction B.2 of Form 8-K, the information in this Item 7.01 and Exhibit 99.2 incorporated herein shall not be deemed to be "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall they be deemed to be incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

NO OFFER OR SOLICITATION. This communication is not intended to and does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to subscribe for or buy or an invitation to purchase or subscribe for any securities or the solicitation of any vote or approval in any jurisdiction pursuant to the acquisition, the merger or otherwise, nor shall there be any sale, issuance or transfer of securities in any jurisdiction in contravention of applicable law. The discussion of such matters is qualified by the inherent risks and uncertainties surrounding future expectations generally, and also may materially differ from actual future experience involving any one or more of such matters. Such risks and uncertainties include: the failure to meet revenue and cash flow targets; approval of the business combination by the shareholders of Marathon and Uniloc and satisfaction of various other conditions to the closing of the transactions; the growth and success of the IP commercialization business, future acquisitions and debt retirement and the risks that are described from time to time in Marathon's reports filed with the SEC, including its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015 as such reports may have been amended. This report speaks only as of its date, and Uniloc and Marathon each disclaims any duty to update the information herein, except as required by law.

BUSINESS COMBINATION AGREEMENT

BUSINESS COMBINATION AGREEMENT, dated as of 14 August 2015 (this “Agreement”), by and among Marathon Group SA, a Luxembourg société anonyme to be registered with the Luxembourg Register of Commerce and Companies (“Holdco”), Uniloc Luxembourg, S.A., a Luxembourg société anonyme registered with the Luxembourg Register of Commerce and Companies (the “RCS”) under number B 159,161 (“Uniloc”), Uniloc Corporation Pty. Limited, an Australian company limited by shares ACN 058 043 744 (“Uniloc Australia”), and Marathon Patent Group, Inc., a Nevada corporation (“Marathon”). Unless the context requires otherwise, capitalized terms used without definition have the meanings given to them in Section 7.14.

Recitals

Uniloc and Marathon desire to combine their businesses on the terms and subject to the conditions in this Agreement. In order to induce Holdco to enter into this Agreement, Uniloc Australia is providing Holdco the option described in Section 1.3 (the “USA Option”) to purchase all of the outstanding members interests in Uniloc USA Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Uniloc USA”).

The boards of directors of Holdco, Uniloc, Uniloc Australia and Marathon have (a) determined that the transactions contemplated hereby (the “Transactions”) are advisable and in the best interests of their respective companies, and (b) authorized and approved this Agreement and its implementation.

Agreement

In consideration of the foregoing and mutual covenants in this Agreement, the parties, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. The Transactions.

1.1 The Uniloc Merger.

- (a) Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions in Article 5, upon the terms of this Agreement and the applicable provisions of Luxembourg Law, at the Closing and immediately before the Lux Effective Time, Uniloc shall contribute all of its assets to Uniloc Sàrl, a Luxembourg société à responsabilité limitée and a wholly-owned Subsidiary of Uniloc (“New Uniloc”), and New Uniloc shall assume all of the liabilities and obligations of Uniloc (collectively, the “Contribution”) in exchange for ordinary shares of New Uniloc (the “New Uniloc Shares”). The Contribution shall be regarded as a contribution in kind to the issued share capital of New Uniloc for Luxembourg Law purposes in full payment and satisfaction of the issue price of the New Uniloc Shares. The Contribution shall become effective upon the execution of the notarial deed recording the issuance of the ordinary shares of New Uniloc in consideration for the Contribution (the “Contribution Deed”). In furtherance of the foregoing:
- (i) Uniloc shall (and shall cause New Uniloc to) execute such instruments of assignment and transfer and take such other corporate actions as are necessary to (A) contribute, transfer and convey to New Uniloc all of the right, title and interest of Uniloc in, to and under all of Uniloc’s assets (contingent or otherwise), including the right to recover for past infringement or misappropriation of patents and (B) cause New Uniloc to assume all of the Liabilities of Uniloc to the extent such Liabilities would otherwise remain obligations of Uniloc or become Liabilities of Holdco following the Lux Effective Time.

- (ii) If it is discovered after the Lux Effective Time that there was an omission of the contribution, transfer or conveyance by Uniloc (or the acceptance or assumption by New Uniloc) of any Uniloc asset or Uniloc Liability, as the case may be, that, had the parties given specific consideration to such asset or Liability prior to the Lux Effective Time, would have otherwise been so contributed, transferred, conveyed, accepted or assumed, as the case may be, pursuant to this Agreement, Holdco and New Uniloc shall use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly effect such transfer, conveyance, acceptance or assumption of such asset or Liability. Any transfer, conveyance, acceptance or assumption made pursuant to this Section 1.1(a)(ii) shall be treated by the parties for all purposes as if it had occurred immediately prior to the Lux Effective Time, except as otherwise required by applicable Law.
 - (iii) To the extent that any contribution, transfer or conveyance of any asset or acceptance or assumption of any Liability required by this Section 1.1(a) to be so contributed, transferred, conveyed, accepted or assumed shall not have been completed prior to the Lux Effective Time, Holdco and New Uniloc shall use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly effect such contribution, transfer, conveyance, acceptance or assumption as promptly following the Lux Effective Time as shall be practicable. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to require the contribution, transfer or conveyance of any assets or the acceptance or assumption of any Liabilities which by their terms or operation of law cannot be so contributed, transferred, conveyed, accepted or assumed; provided, however, that each of Holdco and New Uniloc shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any necessary Consents for the contribution, transfer, conveyance, acceptance or assumption (as applicable) of all assets and Liabilities required by this Section 1.1(a) to be so contributed, transferred, conveyed, accepted or assumed; provided, further, that the failure to obtain any such Consent will not relieve any party from its obligation to consummate the Transactions at the Closing. If any such contribution, transfer, conveyance, acceptance or assumption (as applicable) has not been completed effective as of and after the Lux Effective Time, Holdco shall thereafter hold such asset for the use and benefit of New Uniloc (at the expense of New Uniloc) and retain such Liability for the account, and at the expense, of New Uniloc, and take such other actions as may be reasonably requested by New Uniloc in order to place New Uniloc and Holdco, insofar as reasonably possible, in the same position as would have existed had such asset or Liability been contributed, transferred, conveyed, accepted or assumed (as applicable) as contemplated by this Section 1.1(a), including possession, use, risk of loss, potential for gain and control over such asset or Liability. As and when any such asset or Liability becomes transferable, Holdco and New Uniloc shall use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly effect such contribution, transfer, conveyance, acceptance or assumption (as applicable). Any contribution, transfer, conveyance, acceptance or assumption made pursuant to this Section 1.1(a)(iii) shall be treated by the parties for all purposes as if it had occurred immediately prior to the Lux Effective Time, except as otherwise required by applicable Law.
 - (iv) Holdco shall not be obligated by this Agreement, in connection with this Section 1.1(a), to expend any money or take any action that would require the expenditure of money unless and to the extent New Uniloc advances or agrees to reimburse it for the necessary funds.
 - (v) Uniloc and New Uniloc shall cause the Contribution Deed to be filed with the RCS and subsequently published in the official gazette of Luxembourg, Mémorial C. Recueil Spécial des Sociétés et Associations (the “Memorial”).
- (b) Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions in Article 5 and the Contribution, upon the terms of this Agreement and the applicable provisions of Luxembourg Law, at the Lux Effective Time, Uniloc shall be merged into and absorbed by Holdco (the “Uniloc Merger”), the separate corporate existence of Uniloc shall cease and Holdco shall continue as the surviving entity pursuant to Luxembourg Law.

- (c) Subject to the Contribution and satisfaction or waiver of the conditions in Article 5, at the Closing, each of (i) the notarial deed of an extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders of Uniloc (the “Uniloc EGM”) approving the Terms of Merger (the “Uniloc Approval”) and (ii) a notarial deed of an extraordinary general meeting of the sole shareholder of Holdco (the “Holdco EGM”), approving the Terms of Merger (the “Holdco Approval”), shall be executed with the effect of causing the Uniloc Merger to become effective between the parties (the later of the date and time of execution of the Uniloc Approval and the Holdco Approval shall be the “Lux Effective Time”). Subsequently, the notarial deed of each of the Uniloc EGM and the Holdco EGM shall be filed with the RCS and then published in the Memorial causing the Uniloc Merger to become effective vis-à-vis to third parties.
- (d) At the Lux Effective Time, the effect of the Uniloc Merger shall be as provided in this Agreement and the applicable provisions of Luxembourg Law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Lux Effective Time all the property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of Uniloc and Holdco shall vest ipso jure in Holdco, and all debts, liabilities and duties of Uniloc and Holdco shall ipso jure become the debts, liabilities and duties of Holdco.
- (e) The organizational documents of Holdco shall continue as the organizational documents of Holdco after the Lux Effective Time until thereafter amended per Luxembourg Law. The board of directors of Holdco as of the Lux Effective Time shall be comprised of the nominees specified in Section 5.1(e) of the Uniloc Disclosure Letter and shall continue until their earlier death, resignation, termination of mandate or removal per Luxembourg Law. The persons specified in Section 5.2(e) of the Uniloc Disclosure Letter shall be added to the management committee of Holdco as of the Lux Effective Time, and shall continue until their earlier death, resignation, termination of mandate or removal per Luxembourg Law.
- (f) Prior to submitting the Terms of Merger, Holdco and Uniloc shall procure merger reports, per article 266 of the law of 10 August 1915 on commercial companies (the “Companies Law”), of approved Luxembourg auditors, réviseurs d'entreprises agréés (the “Merger Report”).

1.2 The Nevada Share Exchange.

- (a) Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions in Article 5, at the Nevada Effective Time, upon the terms of this Agreement and the applicable provisions of the Nevada Revised Statutes (the “NRS”) all of the outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Marathon (the “Marathon Common Stock”), and all of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Marathon (the “Marathon Preferred Stock” and together with the Marathon Common Stock, the “Marathon Stock”), shall be (i) exchanged per Section 92A.190 of the NRS (the “Marathon Share Exchange”) for the right to receive ordinary shares, nominal value EUR 0.01 each, of Holdco (the “Ordinary Shares”), and (ii) contributed to and acquired by Holdco. The Marathon Share Exchange shall be regarded as a contribution in kind to the issued share capital of Holdco for Luxembourg Law purposes in full payment and satisfaction of the issue price of such Ordinary Shares.
- (b) Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions in Article 5, Marathon and Holdco shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, execute and deliver articles of exchange (the “Articles of Exchange”) and cause the Articles of Exchange to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Nevada on or before the Closing Date. The Marathon Share Exchange shall become effective immediately following the Lux Effective Time (such date and time, the “Nevada Effective Time”) and such date and time specified in the Articles of Exchange.
- (c) Prior to the Nevada Effective Time, Holdco and Marathon shall procure a contribution in kind report of an approved Luxembourg auditor, réviseurs d'entreprises agréés, confirming that the value of the Marathon Stock is at least equal to the issue price of the Ordinary Shares issued in the Marathon Share Exchange (the “Marathon Contribution Report”).

1.3 USA Option. Uniloc Australia grants to Holdco the right (but without obligation) to purchase all of the outstanding members interests in Uniloc USA (the “USA Equity”) for an aggregate of 950,134 Ordinary Shares (the “USA Option Shares”). The USA Option shall terminate if not exercised at the earlier of the Closing or the termination of this Agreement per Section 6.1. The USA Option may be revoked only by termination of this Agreement per Section 6.1. If Holdco desires to exercise the USA Option, Holdco shall deliver notice of exercise to Uniloc Australia at least five Business Days before the Closing. Following delivery of such exercise notice, and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions in Article 5, at the Closing, Uniloc Australia shall deliver certificates representing the USA Equity (together with such other documentation of Uniloc USA and its Subsidiaries as Holdco shall reasonably request) against delivery of a book entry confirmation of the USA Option Shares in the name of Uniloc Australia or its nominee. Prior to the consummation of the sale and transfer of the USA Equity at the Closing, at Holdco’s request, Holdco and Uniloc Australia shall procure a contribution in kind report of an approved Luxembourg auditor, réviseurs d’entreprises agréés, confirming that the value of the USA Equity is at least equal to the issue price of the USA Option Shares (the “USA Option Report”). If exercised, the USA Option shall be regarded as a contribution in kind to the issued share capital of Holdco for Luxembourg Law purposes in full payment and satisfaction of the issue price of the USA Option Shares.

1.4 Closing. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions in Article 5, the closing of the Contribution, the Uniloc Merger, the USA Option (if exercised) and the Marathon Share Exchange (the “Closing”) will take place at 11:00, local time, on a date to be mutually agreed by the parties, which shall be no later than three Business Days after satisfaction or waiver of all of the conditions in Article 5 (other than conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions at the Closing), at the offices of Elvinger, Hoss & Prussen, 2, Place Winston Churchill, L-1340, Luxembourg City, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, unless another time, date or place is agreed to in writing by the parties. The date on which the Closing actually occurs is the “Closing Date”.

1.5 Conversion of Shares. At the Closing Date:

- (a) Each share of Marathon Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Nevada Effective Time (other than shares of Marathon Common Stock to be cancelled per Section 1.5(d)) shall be automatically exchanged, without the action of any holder thereof, into the right to receive one (the “Marathon Exchange Ratio”) Ordinary Share.
- (b) Each share of Marathon Preferred Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Nevada Effective Time (other than shares of Marathon Preferred Stock to be cancelled per Section 1.5(d)) shall be automatically exchanged, without the action of any holder thereof, into the right to receive one Ordinary Share.
- (c) Each ordinary share, without par value, of Uniloc (the “Uniloc Ordinary Shares”), issued and outstanding immediately prior the Lux Effective Time (other than Uniloc Ordinary Shares to be cancelled per Section 1.5(d)) shall be automatically converted, without the action of any holder thereof, into the Uniloc Exchange Ratio number of Ordinary Shares.
- (d) All shares of capital stock of Marathon or Uniloc that are owned as treasury shares immediately prior to the Closing Date and any shares of capital stock of Marathon or Uniloc owned by Marathon, Uniloc or any other direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of Marathon or Uniloc immediately prior to the Closing Date shall, at the Closing, be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.
- (e) Immediately following the Closing, all shares of capital stock of Holdco that are owned by Marathon shall be surrendered to Holdco and cancelled and shall cease to exist and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

- (f) Each (i) share of capital stock of Uniloc shall be automatically cancelled and cease to exist and (ii) share of capital stock of Marathon shall by operation of law have been acquired by Holdco and exchanged for the right to receive the consideration specified in this Section 1.5, and the holders of outstanding non-certificated Converted Shares represented by entry in the register of stockholders of the applicable company (“Book Entry Shares”) and the holders of certificates that, immediately prior to the Closing Date, represented outstanding Converted Shares (the “Certificates”) shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto other than the right to receive Ordinary Shares per this Section 1.5 and cash in lieu of fractional interests per Section 1.5(h).
- (g) If at any time between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date any change in the number of issued or outstanding Converted Shares or Ordinary Shares shall occur as a result of a reclassification, recapitalization, share split (including a reverse share split), or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any share dividend or share distribution (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into Converted Shares or Ordinary Shares) with a record date during such period, the consideration described in this Section 1.5 shall be equitably adjusted to reflect such change.
- (h) All of the fractions of an Ordinary Share that otherwise would be issued to Registered Stockholders by virtue of the Transactions shall be issued, in the aggregate, to the Exchange Agent. The Exchange Agent shall aggregate all fractional shares that otherwise would be issuable into whole shares and sell the whole shares obtained thereby in open market transactions, in each case, at then prevailing trading prices on behalf of holders of Converted Shares (“Registered Stockholders”) who would otherwise be entitled to fractional share interests and distribute to each such Registered Stockholder, or for the benefit of each such Registered Stockholder, such Registered Stockholder’s ratable share of the cash proceeds (net of discounts and commissions) of such sale, based upon the average gross selling price per share of the Ordinary Shares so sold after making appropriate deductions for any amount required to be withheld for Tax purposes and any brokerage fees incurred in connection with these sales of fractional shares. The sales of fractional shares shall occur as soon after the Closing Date as practicable. None of Holdco, Marathon, Uniloc or the Exchange Agent will guarantee any minimum sale price for the fractional Ordinary Shares. None of Holdco, Marathon, Uniloc or the Exchange Agent will pay any interest on the proceeds from the sale of fractional shares. The Exchange Agent will have the sole discretion to select the broker-dealers through which to sell the aggregated fractional shares and to determine when, how and at what price to sell such shares.

1.6 Delivery of Ordinary Shares to Former Registered Stockholders.

- (a) Prior to the initial filing of the Registration Statement, Holdco shall appoint a United States bank or trust company or other independent financial institution in the United States (or an Affiliate thereof) (the “Exchange Agent”) that is reasonably acceptable to Uniloc to act, among other things, as exchange agent for the Transactions and to deliver the Ordinary Shares to former Registered Stockholders. Uniloc, Marathon and Holdco shall enter into an exchange agent agreement with the Exchange Agent, which agreement shall set forth the duties, responsibilities and obligations of the Exchange Agent consistent with the terms of this Agreement.
- (b) Promptly after the Closing Date (and in any event within five Business Days after the Closing Date), Holdco shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each Registered Stockholder whose shares were replaced by Ordinary Shares per Section 1.5: a letter of transmittal, in customary form, and instructions for use, the form and substance of which letter of transmittal and instructions shall be substantially as reasonably agreed to by Holdco, Marathon and Uniloc and prepared prior to the Closing. Upon receipt of (i) an “agent’s message” by the Exchange Agent in connection with the transfer of a Book Entry Share or (ii) surrender of a Certificate to the Exchange Agent together with a letter of transmittal, duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and with such other documents as may be required by such instructions, the holder of such Book Entry Share or Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, subject to any required withholding of Taxes, book entry delivery of the Ordinary Shares, cash in lieu of fractional shares and any dividends or distributions payable with respect to such Ordinary Shares (if any) per this Article 1, and the Book Entry Share so transferred or Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be (A) cancelled in the case of shares of Uniloc capital stock and (B) delivered to Holdco, in the case of shares of Marathon capital stock. No interest will be paid to holders of Book Entry Shares or Certificates in connection with, or accrued on, the Ordinary Shares, any cash paid in lieu of fractional shares or dividends or distributions payable with respect to Ordinary Shares. If any Ordinary Shares are to be issued to a Person other than a Registered Stockholder in whose name the Book Entry Share transferred or Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of such exchange that the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the issuance of Ordinary Shares to a Person other than the Registered Stockholder owning the Book Entry Share transferred or Certificate surrendered, or shall establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not applicable. Unless otherwise required by Law, all Ordinary Shares issued per this Agreement shall be issued in book entry form.

- (c) At and after the close of business on the Closing Date, there shall be no transfers on the share transfer books of any Converted Shares. If, after the Closing, Certificates or Book Entry Shares are presented to Holdco, its Subsidiaries or the Exchange Agent for any reason, they shall be exchanged for Ordinary Shares per this Article 1, except as otherwise provided by Law, and shall forthwith be (i) cancelled, in the case of shares of Uniloc capital stock, and (ii) delivered to Holdco, in the case of shares of Marathon capital stock.
- (d) Any portion of the consideration specified in this Article 1 that remains unclaimed by the former Registered Stockholders one year after the Closing Date shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, be delivered to Holdco for no consideration. Any Registered Stockholder owning Certificates or Book Entry Shares who has not theretofore complied with this Article 1 with respect to such Certificates or Book Entry Shares shall thereafter look only to Holdco for payment of such Registered Stockholder's claim for such consideration.
- (e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Exchange Agent nor any party shall be liable to any Person in respect of any portion of the consideration specified in this Article 1 delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. If any Certificates or Book Entry Shares shall not have been surrendered or transferred prior to the date on which any such consideration would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any supranational, national, foreign, federal, state or local government or subdivision thereof, or governmental, judicial, legislative, executive, administrative, arbitral or regulatory authority, agency, commission, tribunal or body (a "Governmental Entity") under applicable Law, any such consideration in respect of such Certificates or Book Entry Shares shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of Holdco, and any Registered Stockholder of such Certificates or Book Entry Shares who has not theretofore complied with this Article 1 with respect thereto shall thereafter look only to Holdco for payment of such Registered Stockholder's claim for consideration hereunder.
- (f) If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact (which affidavit shall be in a form reasonably satisfactory to Holdco and the Exchange Agent) by the Person claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed, and if required by Holdco or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond in a reasonable and customary amount as Holdco or the Exchange Agent may so require, the Exchange Agent shall issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate book entry confirmation (and cash in lieu fractional shares) of the consideration to which such Person is entitled in respect of such Certificate per this Article 1.
- (g) Whenever a dividend or other distribution is declared or made after the date hereof with respect to the Ordinary Shares with a record date after the Closing Date, such declaration shall include a dividend or other distribution in respect of all Ordinary Shares issuable per this Agreement as at that record date (other than the shares specified in Section 1.5(d)). No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the date hereof with respect to Ordinary Shares with a record date after the Closing Date and no payment in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 1.5(h) will be paid to the Registered Stockholder owning any unsurrendered Certificates or Book Entry Shares with respect to Ordinary Shares represented thereby until the Registered Stockholders of such Certificates or Book Entry Shares shall surrender such Certificates or effect a book entry transfer of such Book Entry Shares. Subject to applicable Law, following surrender of any such Certificates or transfer of any such Book Entry Shares, the Exchange Agent shall deliver to the Registered Stockholders of such Certificates or such Book Entry Shares, as applicable, without interest (i) promptly after such surrender or transfer, such number of whole Ordinary Shares issued in exchange for the number of shares of Uniloc capital stock or shares of Marathon capital stock represented by such Certificates or Book Entry Shares per Section 1.5, along with payment in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 1.5(h) and the amount of any such dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Closing Date and theretofore paid with respect to such whole Ordinary Shares and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Closing Date and a payment date subsequent to such surrender or transfer payable with respect to such whole Ordinary Shares.

Each Marathon Benefit Plan intended to be qualified under Code Section 401(a) is so qualified and has heretofore been determined by the IRS to be so qualified, and each trust created thereunder has heretofore been determined by the IRS to be exempt from Tax under Code Section 501(a), or each such Marathon Benefit Plan has been established under a prototype plan for which an IRS opinion letter has been obtained by the plan sponsor and is valid as to the adopting employer, and, to Marathon’s Knowledge, nothing has occurred since the date of any such determination that would reasonably be expected to give the IRS grounds to revoke such determination. Neither Marathon nor any of its Subsidiaries has, and at no time in the past has had, an obligation to contribute to a "defined benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(35) of ERISA, a pension plan subject to the funding standards of Section 302 of ERISA or Code Section 412, a "multiemployer plan" as defined in Section 3(37) of ERISA or Code Section 414(f) or a "multiple employer plan" within the meaning of Section 210(a) of ERISA or Code Section 413(c). All contributions, transfers and payments in respect of any Marathon Benefit Plan have been or are fully deductible under the Code. No amount payable to any current or former service provider (whether in cash or property or as a result of accelerated vesting) as a result of the execution of this Agreement or the consummation of the Transactions (either alone or together with any other event) under any Marathon Benefit Plan or other compensation arrangement would be nondeductible under Code Section 280G.

This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by each of Uniloc and Uniloc Australia and, assuming due and valid authorization, execution and delivery hereof by each of Holdco and Marathon, is a valid and binding obligation, enforceable against each of Uniloc and Uniloc Australia, in accordance with its terms, except as limited by the Enforceability Exceptions.
- 3.4 Consents and Approvals; No Violations. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by each of Uniloc and Uniloc Australia does not, and the performance by each of Uniloc and Uniloc Australia of its respective obligations under this Agreement and the consummation by each of Uniloc and Uniloc Australia of the Transactions will not, (a) violate any provision of the articles of association, as amended, of either Uniloc or Uniloc Australia or the organizational documents, as amended, of any of their respective Subsidiaries, (b) subject to obtaining the Uniloc Approval, require any consent by any Person under, conflict with or result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any Contract to which Uniloc, Uniloc Australia or any of their respective Subsidiaries, is a party or by which any of them or any of their properties or assets is bound, or result in the creation of any Lien in or upon any of the properties, rights or assets of Uniloc, Uniloc Australia or any of their respective Subsidiaries, (c) violate any Law applicable to Uniloc, Uniloc Australia, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of their properties or assets or (d) other than in connection with or compliance with (i) applicable competition Laws and (ii) the Companies Law, require Uniloc or Uniloc Australia to make any filing or registration with, or provide any notification to, or obtain any Consent of any Governmental Entity, except in the case of clauses (b), (c) and (d), for such violations, breaches or defaults that, or such filings, registrations, notifications, authorizations, consents or approvals the failure of which to make or obtain, would not have, or reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Uniloc.
- 3.5 Financial Statements. Section 3.5 of the Uniloc Disclosure Letter contains Uniloc's consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal years ended 30 June 2015, 30 June 2014 and 30 June 2013 (collectively, the "Uniloc Financial Statements"). The Uniloc Financial Statements (i) were prepared in accordance with GAAP (except that the unaudited financial statements do not have notes thereto) applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods indicated, (ii) present fairly in all material respects the respective consolidated financial condition and results of operations and cash flows of Uniloc and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of the dates, and for the periods, indicated therein (subject, in the case of interim period financial statements, to normal recurring year-end audit adjustments, none of which individually or in the aggregate will be material) and (iii) disclose all Liens on assets owned by Uniloc or its Subsidiaries. There has been no change in Uniloc's accounting policies since 30 June 2014 except as described in the Uniloc Financial Statements. During and subsequent to the periods covered by the Uniloc Financial Statements, Uniloc has maintained a system of internal controls sufficient to prepare financial statements under GAAP, and Uniloc has no Knowledge of any material deficiency or significant weakness therein.

3.6 No Undisclosed Liabilities. Neither Uniloc nor any of its Subsidiaries has, since 30 June 2014, incurred any liabilities or obligations of any kind whether accrued, contingent, absolute, inchoate or otherwise, that would be required to be reflected or reserved against in a combined balance sheet of Uniloc and its consolidated Subsidiaries prepared in accordance with GAAP, as in effect on the date hereof, or the notes thereto, except for (a) liabilities or obligations disclosed and provided for in the consolidated balance sheet of Uniloc and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of 30 June 2014 or in the notes thereto, (b) liabilities and obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business since 30 June 2014, (c) liabilities and obligations incurred in connection with the Transactions or otherwise as contemplated or permitted by this Agreement, (d) intercompany liabilities and obligations, (e) liabilities and obligations that would not have, or reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Uniloc and (f) other liabilities and obligations that are otherwise the subject of any other representation or warranty in this Article 3.

3.7 Absence of Certain Changes. Except as contemplated by this Agreement, (i) since 30 June 2014 through the date hereof Uniloc has not suffered a Material Adverse Effect and (ii) since 31 December 2014 through the date hereof Uniloc and its Subsidiaries have not taken any action that would be prohibited by Section 4.1 if taken after the date hereof.

3.8 Material Contracts.

- (a) Except as listed in Section 3.8(a) of the Uniloc Disclosure Letter, as of the date of this Agreement, none of Uniloc, Uniloc USA or their respective Subsidiaries are a party to or bound by any Material Contract. The copies of Material Contracts provided by Uniloc to Marathon and its counsel are true, correct and complete in all material respects.
- (b) Except as would not have, or reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Uniloc, (i) each Material Contract is enforceable against Uniloc, Uniloc USA or the applicable Subsidiary in accordance with its terms and, to the Knowledge of Uniloc, each other party thereto, and is in full force and effect and (ii) Uniloc, Uniloc USA or its respective Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and, to the Knowledge of Uniloc, each other party to each Material Contract, on the other hand, have performed all obligations required to be performed by it under such Material Contract in all material respects and, to the Knowledge of Uniloc, no event has occurred, and no circumstance or condition exists, that (with or without notice or lapse of time) will, or would reasonably be expected to, (A) constitute a violation or breach of any Material Contract, (B) give any Person the right to accelerate the maturity or performance of any obligation under or provision of any Material Contract or (C) give any Person the right to cancel, terminate or modify any Material Contract.
- (c) As of the date hereof, none of Uniloc, Uniloc USA or any of their respective Subsidiaries is a party to or bound by any Contract that (i) contains any provisions restricting the right of Uniloc, Uniloc USA or any of their respective Subsidiaries materially (A) to compete or transact in any business or with any Person or in any geographic area, (B) to acquire any material product or other asset or service from any other Person, or (C) to develop, sell, supply, distribute, support or service any material product or technology or other asset to or for any other Person, (ii) grants exclusive rights to license, market, sell to, or that contains any "most favored nation" or similar provisions in favor, of the other party, or (iii), following the Closing, would result in any party to such Contract or any other party obtaining a license, right to use or any other claim or right in respect of any Intellectual Property of Marathon or any of its Subsidiaries.

- 3.9 Employee Benefit Plans. Section 3.9 of the Uniloc Disclosure Letter sets forth a complete list of all Uniloc Benefit Plans. There have been no prohibited transactions or breaches of any of the duties imposed on fiduciaries with respect to the Uniloc Benefit Plans that could reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on Uniloc or result in any excise tax under ERISA or the Code being imposed on Uniloc or its Subsidiaries. Each Uniloc Benefit Plan intended to be qualified under Code Section 401(a) is so qualified and has heretofore been determined by the IRS to be so qualified, and each trust created thereunder has heretofore been determined by the IRS to be exempt from Tax under Code Section 501(a), or each such Uniloc Benefit Plan has been established under a prototype plan for which an IRS opinion letter has been obtained by the plan sponsor and is valid as to the adopting employer, and, to Uniloc's Knowledge, nothing has occurred since the date of any such determination that would reasonably be expected to give the IRS grounds to revoke such determination. None of Uniloc nor any of its Subsidiaries has, and at no time in the past has had, an obligation to contribute to a "defined benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(35) of ERISA, a pension plan subject to the funding standards of Section 302 of ERISA or Code Section 412, a "multiemployer plan" as defined in Section 3(37) of ERISA or Code Section 414(f) or a "multiple employer plan" within the meaning of Section 210(a) of ERISA or Code Section 413(c). No Uniloc Benefit Plan is or at any time was funded through a welfare benefit fund (within the meaning of Code Section 419(e)), and no benefits under any Uniloc Benefit Plan are or at any time have been provided through a voluntary employees' beneficiary association (within the meaning of Code Section 501(c)(9)) or a supplemental unemployment benefit plan (within the meaning of Code Section 501(c)(17)). All contributions, transfers and payments in respect of any Uniloc Benefit Plan have been or are fully deductible under the Code. No amount payable to any current or former service provider (whether in cash or property or as a result of accelerated vesting) as a result of the execution of this Agreement or the consummation of the Transactions (either alone or together with any other event) under any Uniloc Benefit Plan or other compensation arrangement would be nondeductible under Code Section 280G. None of Uniloc nor any of its Subsidiaries has been required to contribute to a non-US Uniloc Benefit Plan.
- 3.10 Litigation. Section 3.10 of the Uniloc Disclosure Letter lists all pending Actions that as of the date of this Agreement are pending against Uniloc, Uniloc USA or their respective Subsidiaries or to which Uniloc, Uniloc USA or their respective Subsidiaries are parties or by which their assets may be bound or to which their officers (in their capacity as such) are a party or related to any Intellectual Property of Uniloc, Uniloc USA or their respective Subsidiaries or any Uniloc Benefit Plan. There is no Action pending against or, to the Knowledge of Uniloc, threatened against Uniloc, Uniloc USA or their respective Subsidiaries that would, individually or in the aggregate, have, or reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on Uniloc. To the Knowledge of Uniloc, there are no investigations by any Governmental Entity pending, or threatened against Uniloc, Uniloc USA or any of their respective Subsidiaries that would, individually or in the aggregate, have, or reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on Uniloc. - (b) Uniloc and its Subsidiaries are, and have at all times since 1 July 2014 been, in compliance with United States and foreign export control laws and regulations, including: the United States Export Administration Act and implementing Export Administration Regulations; the Arms Export Control Act and implementing International Traffic in Arms Regulations; and the various economic sanctions laws administered by OFAC, applicable to their export transactions, except for such non-compliance that would not have, or reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Uniloc. To the Knowledge of Uniloc, there are no pending or threatened claims or investigations by any Governmental Entity of potential violations against Uniloc or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to export activity or licenses or other approvals that would, individually or in the aggregate, have, or reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on Uniloc.

- (b) Neither the operation of Uniloc’s or any of its Subsidiaries’ businesses as currently conducted nor the use, development, manufacture, marketing, license, import, sale or other disposition of any product or service by Uniloc or its Subsidiaries (i) violates any Contract between Uniloc or its Subsidiaries and any Person, or (ii), to the Knowledge of Uniloc, conflicts with, infringes or misappropriates any Intellectual Property right of any Person. Neither Uniloc nor any of its Subsidiaries have received any notice asserting that any Intellectual Property owned by or licensed to Uniloc or its Subsidiaries (“Uniloc IP Rights”) conflicts with or infringes the Intellectual Property or other rights of any Person.
- (c) Uniloc and its Subsidiaries (or their predecessors in interest) have secured valid written assignments from all Persons who contributed to the creation or development of Uniloc IP Rights with respect to all rights to such contributions that Uniloc, its Subsidiaries or their predecessors in interest did not already own by operation of law.

- (p) not increase the salaries or wage rates of its employees (other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice (but not any across-the-board increase)) or grant any severance or termination pay to any Person;
- (q) not make or change any material election in respect of Taxes, adopt or change any accounting method in respect of Taxes, file any material Tax Return or any amendment to a material Tax Return, enter into any closing agreement, settle any claim or assessment in respect of a material amount of Taxes, or consent to any extension or waiver of the limitation period applicable to any claim or assessment in respect of Taxes;
- (r) knowingly enter into any transaction (other than the Transactions) that could reasonably be expected to raise a material risk of causing Holdco to be treated, as a result of such transaction, as (i) a resident of the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes or (ii) a “surrogate foreign corporation” within the meaning of Code Section 7874(a)(2)(B);
- (s) prosecute or otherwise protect Intellectual Property in a manner that is not consistent with past practice;
- (t) not enter into any Contract or transaction in which any officer or non-employee director of a party or its Subsidiaries (or any member of the immediate family of such officer or director), has an interest under circumstances that would require disclosure under Item 404 of Regulation S-K if such provision were applicable to such company;
- (u) not incur any indebtedness, guarantee any indebtedness of a third party or suffer to exist or incur any Lien; and
- (v) not commit to, take or agree to take (in writing, by estoppel or otherwise) any of the actions described in the foregoing clauses of this Section 4.1.

A party may request a waiver of any of the restrictions in Section 4.1(b) to Section 4.1(v), and the other parties shall consider such request in good faith and respond to such request in a commercially reasonable period of time.

- 4.2 Tax Treatment. This Agreement is intended to constitute a “plan of reorganization” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-2(g). From and after the date of this Agreement and until the Nevada Effective Time, Holdco, Marathon and Uniloc shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Marathon Share Exchange to qualify, and will not knowingly take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any action or cause any action to fail to be taken which action or failure to act could prevent the Marathon Share Exchange from qualifying, as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Code Section 368(a)(1)(B). Following the Nevada Effective Time, none of Holdco nor any of its Subsidiaries shall knowingly take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any action or cause any action to fail to be taken, which action or failure to act could cause the Marathon Share Exchange to fail to qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Code Section 368(a)(1)(B). Marathon and Uniloc will use commercially reasonable efforts to make representations to Skadden, Arps, Slate Meagher & Flom LLP, substantially in the form attached as Section 4.2 of the Marathon Disclosure Letter and Section 4.2 of the Uniloc Disclosure Letter, respectively.

- 4.3 Access to Information. Until the earlier of the Closing Date or the termination of this Agreement, each party will afford the parties and their counsel, accountants, financing sources and other authorized representatives, reasonable access to its properties, personnel, advisors, books and records in order that they may have the opportunity to make such investigations as they may desire of the affairs of the disclosing party. Each party will cause its officers, employees, consultants, accountants and counsel to furnish additional financial and operating data and other information and respond to such inquiries as the other party and its Representatives may, from time to time, reasonably request. Each party will promptly notify the other party of any event (the occurrence or non-occurrence of which) is likely to cause any of its representations and warranties to be untrue, constitutes a breach of any of its covenants in this Agreement or is likely to cause any condition in Article 5 not to be satisfied on a timely basis.
- 4.4 Reasonable Efforts. Each party will (and will cause its Subsidiaries and Affiliates to) use commercially reasonable efforts to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary or advisable to consummate the Transactions (including satisfying the conditions in Article 5) as soon as practicable, including (a) preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to obtain all necessary Permits and other documents and to obtain as promptly as practicable all Consents necessary or advisable to be obtained from any third party or Governmental Entity in order to consummate the Transactions, (b) taking all commercially reasonable steps to obtain such Permits and Consents and (c) not taking any action which could be expected to have the effect of preventing or delaying the consummation of the Transactions; provided that such commercially reasonable efforts will not include payment of a fee or agreeing to amend or modify any agreement to obtain a consent in a manner that is less favorable to such party than prior to the amendment or modification.
- 4.5 Publicity. The initial joint press release and investor presentation by Marathon and Uniloc with respect to the execution of this Agreement shall be acceptable to each of Uniloc and Marathon. Thereafter, neither Marathon nor Uniloc (nor any of their respective Affiliates) shall issue any other press release or make any other public announcement with respect to this Agreement or the Transactions without the prior review and approval of the other party (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), except as may be required by Law or by any listing agreement, in which case the party proposing to issue such press release or make such public announcement shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to consult in good faith with the other party before making any such public announcements; provided, that a party will not be required to obtain the prior approval of or consult with the other party in connection with any such press release or public announcement if such party's board of directors has effected a Marathon Change of Recommendation or Uniloc Change of Recommendation, as the case may be, upon compliance with the limitations on such changes in this Agreement.
- 4.6 Employee Benefits.
- (a) As of the Closing Date, Holdco shall honor or cause to be honored, in accordance with their terms, all Marathon Benefit Plans and Uniloc Benefit Plans.
- (b) With respect to each benefit plan, program, practice, policy or arrangement maintained by Holdco or its Subsidiaries following the Closing Date and in which any then current or former employees of Marathon, Uniloc or their Subsidiaries (the "Employees") participate (the "Holdco Plans"), and except to the extent necessary to avoid duplication of benefits, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting, accrual of and entitlement to benefits service with Marathon and its Subsidiaries, Uniloc and its Subsidiaries (or predecessor employers to the extent Marathon provides past service credit) shall be treated as service with Holdco and its Subsidiaries. Holdco will use commercially reasonable efforts to give or cause its Subsidiaries to give the Employees credit under the applicable Holdco Plan for amounts paid prior to the Closing Date during the calendar year in which the Closing Date occurs under a corresponding Marathon Benefit Plan or Uniloc Benefit Plan for purposes of applying deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Holdco Plan.

- (c) Unless Holdco requests otherwise in writing, effective prior to the Closing, Marathon shall terminate its 401(k) retirement savings plan (the “Terminated Plan”). Marathon shall provide Holdco with resolutions adopted by Marathon’s board of directors terminating the Terminated Plan, the form and substance of which shall be subject to the reasonable advance approval of Holdco. As soon as practicable following the Nevada Effective Time, with respect to the Terminated Plan, Holdco shall permit or cause its Subsidiaries to permit the Employees to roll over their account balances and outstanding loan balances, if any, thereunder into an “eligible retirement plan” within the meaning of Section 402(c)(8)(B) of the Code maintained by Holdco or its Subsidiaries.
- (d) This Section 4.6 is included for the sole benefit of the parties and shall not create any right (i) in any other Person, including employees, former employees, any participant or any beneficiary thereof in any Marathon Benefit Plan or Uniloc Plan or (ii) to continued employment with Marathon and its Subsidiaries, Uniloc or its Subsidiaries. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 4.6 to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement, whether express or implied, shall be treated as an amendment or other modification of any Marathon Benefit Plan, any Uniloc Benefit Plan or any other employee benefit plans of Marathon or Uniloc, or prevent Holdco or any of its Subsidiaries from amending or terminating any employee benefit plan.

4.7 Directors’ and Officers’ Insurance and Indemnification.

- (a) From and after the Nevada Effective Time, Holdco shall cause Marathon to, indemnify and hold harmless the individuals who at any time prior to the Nevada Effective Time were directors or officers of Marathon or any of its present or former Subsidiaries (the “Marathon Indemnified Parties”) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities in connection with actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Nevada Effective Time (including the Transactions) to the fullest extent permitted by Law and Marathon’s organizational documents, and Holdco shall cause Marathon to, promptly advance expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted by Law and Marathon’s organizational documents. After the Nevada Effective Time, Holdco and Marathon shall (and Holdco shall cause Marathon to) fulfill and honor to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Law, all rights to exculpation or indemnification for acts or omissions occurring prior to the Nevada Effective Time existing as of the Nevada Effective Time in favor of directors and officers of Marathon, its Subsidiaries or any of their predecessors in their capacity as officers or directors (including in their capacity as plan trustees or administrators) and the heirs, executors, trustees, fiduciaries and administrators of such officer or director (each, a “Marathon D&O Indemnitee”), as provided in Marathon’s or each of its Subsidiaries’ respective organizational or governing documents or in any agreement.

- (i) Prior to the Nevada Effective Time, Marathon shall or, if Marathon is unable to, Holdco shall cause Marathon to as of the Nevada Effective Time to, obtain and fully pay the premium for the non-cancellable extension of the directors' and officers' liability coverage of Marathon's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies and Marathon's existing fiduciary liability insurance policies (collectively, the "Marathon D&O Insurance"), in each case for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six years from and after the Nevada Effective Time with respect to any claim related to any period of time at or prior to the Nevada Effective Time from an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as the current Marathon D&O Insurance carrier with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance in an amount and scope at least as favorable as Marathon's existing policies. If Marathon for any reason fails to obtain such "tail" insurance policies as of the Nevada Effective Time, (A) Marathon shall continue to maintain in effect, for a period of at least six years from and after the Nevada Effective Time, the Marathon D&O Insurance in place as of the date of this Agreement with Marathon's current insurance carrier or with an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as the current Marathon D&O Insurance carrier with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance in an amount and scope at least as favorable as Marathon's existing policies, or (B) Holdco will provide, or cause Marathon to provide, for a period of not less than six years after the Nevada Effective Time, the Marathon D&O Indemnitees who are insured under the Marathon D&O Insurance with comparable director and officer insurance that provides coverage for events occurring at or prior to the Nevada Effective Time from an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as the current Marathon D&O Insurance carrier, that is no less favorable than the existing policy of Marathon or, if substantially equivalent insurance coverage is unavailable, the best available coverage; provided, however, that Holdco and Marathon shall not be required to pay an annual premium for such director and officer insurance in excess of 150% of the annual premium currently paid by Marathon for such insurance; and provided further, that if the annual premiums of such insurance coverage exceed such amount, Holdco or Marathon shall be obligated to obtain a policy with the greatest coverage available, with respect to matters occurring prior to the Nevada Effective Time, for a cost not exceeding such amount.
 - (ii) This Section 4.7(a) is intended to benefit the Marathon Indemnified Parties and the Marathon D&O Indemnitees, and shall be binding on all successors and assigns of Holdco and Marathon. Holdco hereby guarantees the payment and performance by Marathon of the indemnification and other obligations pursuant to this Section 4.7(a) and the organizational documents of Marathon.
 - (iii) If Holdco, Marathon or any of their respective successors or assigns (A) consolidates or amalgamates with, or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving Person of such consolidation or merger or (B) transfers or conveys a majority of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors, assigns and transferees of Holdco or Marathon or their respective successors or assigns, as the case may be, assume the obligations in this Section 4.7(a).
- (b) From and after the Lux Effective Time, Holdco shall indemnify and hold harmless the individuals who at any time prior to the Lux Effective Time were directors or officers of Uniloc or any of its present or former Subsidiaries (the "Uniloc Indemnified Parties") against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities in connection with actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Lux Effective Time (including the Transactions) to the fullest extent permitted by Law and such company's organizational documents, and Holdco shall promptly advance expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted by Law and Uniloc's organizational documents. After the Lux Effective Time, Uniloc will fulfill and honor to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Law, all rights to exculpation or indemnification for acts or omissions occurring prior to the Lux Effective Time existing as of the Lux Effective Time in favor of directors and officers of Uniloc, its Subsidiaries or any of their predecessors in their capacity as officers or directors (including in their capacity as plan trustees or administrators) and the heirs, executors, trustees, fiduciaries and administrators of such officer or director (each, a "Uniloc D&O Indemnitee"), as provided in Uniloc's or each of its Subsidiaries' respective organizational or governing documents or in any agreement.

- (i) Prior to the Lux Effective Time, Uniloc will obtain and fully pay, as of the Lux Effective Time, the premium for the non-cancellable extension of the directors' and officers' liability coverage of Uniloc's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies and Uniloc's existing fiduciary liability insurance policies (collectively, the "Uniloc D&O Insurance"), in each case for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six years from and after the Lux Effective Time with respect to any claim related to any period of time at or prior to the Lux Effective Time from an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as the current Uniloc D&O Insurance carrier with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance in an amount and scope at least as favorable as Uniloc's existing policies. If Uniloc for any reason fails to obtain such "tail" insurance policies as of the Lux Effective Time, (A) Uniloc shall continue to maintain in effect, for a period of at least six years from and after the Lux Effective Time, the Uniloc D&O Insurance in place as of the date of this Agreement with Uniloc's current insurance carrier or with an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as the current Uniloc D&O Insurance carrier with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance in an amount and scope at least as favorable as Uniloc's existing policies, or (B) Uniloc will provide, for a period of not less than six years after the Lux Effective Time, the Uniloc D&O Indemnitees who are insured under the Uniloc D&O Insurance with comparable directors and officers insurance that provides coverage for events occurring at or prior to the Lux Effective Time from an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as the current Uniloc D&O Insurance carrier, that is no less favorable than the existing policy of Uniloc or, if substantially equivalent insurance coverage is unavailable, the best available coverage; provided, however, that Uniloc shall not be required to pay an annual premium for such director and officer insurance in excess of 150% of the annual premium currently paid by Uniloc for such insurance; and provided further, that if the annual premiums of such insurance coverage exceed such amount, Uniloc shall be obligated to obtain a policy with the greatest coverage available, with respect to matters occurring prior to the Lux Effective Time, for a cost not exceeding such amount.
 - (ii) This Section 4.7(b) is intended to benefit the Uniloc Indemnified Parties and the Uniloc D&O Indemnitees, and shall be binding on all successors and assigns of Uniloc.
 - (iii) If Holdco or its respective successors or assigns (A) consolidates or amalgamates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving Person of such consolidation or merger or (B) transfers or conveys a majority of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors, assigns and transferees of Holdco or their respective successors or assigns, as the case may be, assume the obligations in this Section 4.7(b).
- 4.8 Section 16 Matters. Prior to the Nevada Effective Time, the board of directors of Marathon, or an appropriate committee of non-employee directors, shall adopt a resolution consistent with the interpretive guidance of the SEC so that the disposition of shares of Marathon Common Stock, Marathon Options, Marathon Warrants and Restricted Stock per this Agreement by any officer or director of Marathon who is a covered person for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act shall be an exempt transaction for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act.

- 4.9 Filing of Form S-8; Listing of Additional Shares. Holdco will file no later than the Closing Date a registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor or other appropriate form) with respect to the Ordinary Shares issuable with respect to Marathon Options and the Uniloc Options assumed per this Agreement and shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as any of the Marathon Options and Uniloc Options assumed per this Agreement remain outstanding. Holdco shall ensure that there will remain a sufficient amount of unissued Ordinary Shares to meet its share issuance obligations under the assumed Marathon Options, Marathon Warrants, Uniloc Options and Uniloc Warrants. Holdco shall use commercially reasonable efforts to take any action required to be taken by it under any applicable state securities laws in connection with the conversion of Marathon Options and Uniloc Options into options and Marathon Warrants and Uniloc Warrant into warrants to purchase Ordinary Shares and under the Laws of Luxembourg and Holdco's organizational documents in order to duly authorize the grant of such rights to subscribe for shares in its share capital free of preemptive rights at or prior to the Closing Date, and each of Marathon and Uniloc shall furnish to Holdco any information concerning Marathon, Uniloc, and holders of Marathon Options, Marathon Warrants, Uniloc Options and Uniloc Warrants, as the case may be, as may be reasonably requested by Holdco in connection with any such action. Holdco shall take all action necessary to cause the Ordinary Shares to be issuable upon the exercise of Marathon Options, Marathon Warrants, Uniloc Options and Uniloc Warrants to be authorized for listing on NASDAQ upon official notice of issuance at or prior to the Closing Date.
- 4.10 Notification of Certain Matters. Each party shall promptly notify each other party in writing of: (a) any written communication from any Person alleging that the Consent of such Person (or another Person) is or may be required in connection with the Transactions, (b) any written communication from any Governmental Entity in connection with the Transactions (other than such communications contemplated by Section 4.11, which shall be governed by such Section) or (c) any Actions commenced or, to the Knowledge of Marathon or Uniloc, as applicable, threatened against Marathon or any of its Subsidiaries (in the case of Marathon) or Uniloc or any of its Subsidiaries (in the case of Uniloc) that are related to the Transactions (including any transaction litigation brought by a stockholder of Marathon or shareholder of Uniloc).

No such settlement will be agreed to without the prior written consent of Marathon (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).
- (c) Prior to the Closing, without the prior written consent of the other parties, a party shall not settle any Action related to the Transactions unless such settlement provides a full and unconditional release for each other party and each officer and director of the other party to such litigation.

- (d) Each of Marathon and Uniloc shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, cooperate in the defense or settlement of any litigation contemplated by this Section 4.11.

4.14 Marathon Board Recommendation; Acquisition Proposals.

- (a) Marathon and its Subsidiaries will not, and will use their reasonable best efforts to cause their respective officers, directors, employees and other Representatives not to, directly or indirectly (i) initiate, solicit, or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage, or participate or engage in any negotiations, inquiries or discussions with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) in connection with any potential Acquisition Proposal, disclose or furnish any nonpublic information or data to any Person concerning Marathon's business or properties or afford any Person other than Uniloc or its Representatives access to its properties, books, or records, except as required by Law or pursuant to a governmental request for information, (iii) enter into or execute, or propose to enter into or execute, any agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or (iv) approve, endorse, recommend or make or authorize any public statement, recommendation, or solicitation in support of any Acquisition Proposal. Marathon will, and will direct its Representatives to, cease immediately and cause to be terminated all discussions and negotiations that commenced prior to the date of this Agreement regarding any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal.
- (b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, if Marathon receives an Acquisition Proposal that has not been solicited in violation of this Agreement, Marathon and its Representatives may participate in discussions or negotiations (including, as a part thereof, making any counterproposal) with, or furnish any nonpublic information to, any Person (but only after any such Person enters into a customary confidentiality agreement with Marathon which may not provide for an exclusive right to negotiate with Marathon and may not restrict Marathon from complying with this Section 4.14) making such Acquisition Proposal and their respective Representatives and potential sources of financing, if prior to the Marathon Stockholder Approval (i) Marathon's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such Person has submitted to Marathon an Acquisition Proposal that is, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a Superior Proposal and (ii) Marathon's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to participate in such discussions or negotiations or furnish such information, would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of Marathon's directors under applicable Law. In addition, nothing herein shall restrict Marathon from complying with its disclosure obligations with regard to any Acquisition Proposal under applicable Law; provided, that the foregoing shall not permit the board of directors of Marathon to make a Marathon Change of Recommendation except as permitted by Section 4.14(e).

- (c) Marathon will as promptly as reasonably practicable (and in any event within two days after receipt) notify Uniloc of the receipt by Marathon of any Acquisition Proposal. Marathon shall notify Uniloc, in writing, of any decision of its board of directors as to whether to consider any Acquisition Proposal or to enter into discussions or negotiations concerning any Acquisition Proposal or to provide non-public information with respect to Marathon to any Person, which notice shall be given as promptly as practicable after such determination was reached (and in any event no later than twenty four hours after such determination was reached). Marathon will (i) provide Uniloc with written notice setting forth all such information as is reasonably necessary to keep Uniloc informed in all material respects of the status and material terms of any such Acquisition Proposal and of any material amendments thereto (including negotiations contemplated by Section 4.14(b)), (ii) keep Uniloc informed as promptly as practicable with respect to any changes to the material terms of an Acquisition Proposal submitted to Marathon (and in any event within forty eight hours following any such changes), including by providing a copy of all written proposals relating to any Acquisition Proposal, (iii) promptly (and in any event within forty eight hours) following the provision of any non-public information of Marathon to any such Person, provide such information to Uniloc (including by posting such information to an electronic data room), to the extent such information has not previously been provided or made available to Uniloc and (iv) promptly (and in any event within twenty four hours of such determination) notify Uniloc of any determination by Marathon's board of directors that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal.
- (d) Subject to Sections 4.14(e) and 4.14(f), unless and until this Agreement has been terminated per Section 6.1, neither the board of directors of Marathon nor any committee thereof shall, directly or indirectly, (i)(A) withdraw, modify or qualify, or propose publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to Uniloc, the approval or recommendation or declaration of advisability by the board of directors of Marathon or any such committee thereof of the Marathon Share Exchange as described in Section 4.14 or (B) approve, adopt, or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, adopt, or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal (any action described in clause (A) or (B) being referred to as a "Marathon Change of Recommendation") or (ii) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, or allow Marathon to execute or enter into, any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement, or other similar agreement, arrangement, or understanding (A) constituting or related to, or that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal or (B) requiring it to abandon, terminate, or fail to consummate the Marathon Share Exchange or any other Transaction.
- (e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the Marathon Stockholder Meeting, Marathon's board of directors may, if Marathon's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of Marathon's directors under applicable Law, make a Marathon Change of Recommendation, including to approve or recommend a Superior Proposal; provided, that:
- (i) Marathon notifies Uniloc that it intends to take such action, which notice must specify the reasons for taking such action and, if applicable, the material terms and conditions of such proposal (it being understood that any amendment to the financial terms or any other material term of such proposal will require a new notice and a new three-day response period); and

- (ii) Uniloc shall not have proposed, within three Business Days after receipt of such notice from Marathon, to amend this Agreement to provide for terms which the board of directors of Marathon determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, (A) to cause the Superior Proposal to no longer constitute a Superior Proposal, if applicable, or (B) if the proposed Marathon Change of Recommendation is not in response to a Superior Proposal, that the failure to make a Marathon Change of Recommendation would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of Marathon's directors under applicable Law.
- (f) Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the board of directors of Marathon from (i) taking and disclosing to the stockholders of a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act or complying with the provisions of Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act, and (ii) making any disclosure to the stockholders of Marathon that the board of directors of Marathon determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that the failure to make such disclosure would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, that the foregoing shall not permit the board of directors of Marathon to make a Marathon Change of Recommendation except as permitted by Section 4.14(e).

4.15 Uniloc Board Recommendation; Acquisition Proposals.

- (a) Uniloc and its Affiliates will not, and will use their reasonable best efforts to cause their respective officers, directors, employees and other Representatives not to, directly or indirectly (i) initiate, solicit, or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage, or participate or engage in any negotiations, inquiries or discussions with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) in connection with any potential Acquisition Proposal, disclose or furnish any nonpublic information or data to any Person concerning Uniloc's business or properties or afford any Person other than Marathon or its Representatives access to its properties, books, or records, except as required by Law or pursuant to a governmental request for information, (iii) enter into or execute, or propose to enter into or execute, any agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or (iv) approve, endorse, recommend or make or authorize any public statement, recommendation, or solicitation in support of any Acquisition Proposal. Uniloc will, and will direct its and its Affiliates' Representatives to, cease immediately and cause to be terminated all discussions and negotiations that commenced prior to the date of this Agreement regarding any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal.
- (b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, if Uniloc receives an Acquisition Proposal that has not been solicited in violation of this Agreement, Uniloc and its Representatives may participate in discussions or negotiations (including, as a part thereof, making any counterproposal) with, or furnish any nonpublic information to any Person or Persons (but only after any such Person enters into a customary confidentiality agreement with Uniloc which may not provide for an exclusive right to negotiate with Uniloc and may not restrict Uniloc from complying with this Section 4.15) making such Acquisition Proposal and their respective Representatives and potential sources of financing, if prior to the Uniloc Approval (i) Uniloc's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such Person or Persons have submitted to Uniloc an Acquisition Proposal that is, or would reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal and (ii) Uniloc's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to participate in such discussions or negotiations or furnish such information, would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of Uniloc's directors under applicable Law. In addition, nothing herein shall restrict Uniloc from complying with its disclosure obligations with regard to any Acquisition Proposal under applicable Law; provided, that the foregoing shall not permit the board of directors of Uniloc to make a Uniloc Change of Recommendation except as permitted by Section 4.15(e).

- (c) Uniloc will as promptly as reasonably practicable (and in any event within two days after receipt) notify Marathon of the receipt by Uniloc or its Affiliates of any Acquisition Proposal. Uniloc shall notify Marathon, in writing, of any decision of its board of directors as to whether to consider any Acquisition Proposal or to enter into discussions or negotiations concerning any Acquisition Proposal or to provide non-public information with respect to Uniloc to any Person, which notice shall be given as promptly as practicable after such determination was reached (and in any event no later than twenty four hours after such determination was reached). Uniloc will (i) provide Marathon with written notice setting forth all such information as is reasonably necessary to keep Marathon informed in all material respects of the status and material terms of any such Acquisition Proposal and of any material amendments thereto (including negotiations contemplated by Section 4.15(b)), (ii) keep Marathon informed as promptly as practicable with respect to any changes to the material terms of an Acquisition Proposal submitted to Marathon (and in any event within forty eight hours following any such changes), including by providing a copy of all written proposals relating to any Acquisition Proposal, (iii) promptly (and in any event within forty eight hours) following the provision of any non-public information of Uniloc to any such Person, provide such information to Marathon (including by posting such information to an electronic data room), to the extent such information has not previously been provided or made available to Marathon and (iv) promptly (and in any event within twenty four hours of such determination) notify Marathon of any determination by Uniloc's board of directors that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal.
- (d) Subject to Section 4.15(e), unless and until this Agreement has been terminated per Section 6.1, neither the board of directors of Uniloc nor any committee thereof shall, directly or indirectly, (i)(A) withdraw, modify or qualify, or propose publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to Marathon, the approval or recommendation or declaration of advisability by the board of directors of Uniloc or any such committee thereof of the Transactions or (B) approve, adopt, or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, adopt, or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal (any action described in clause (A) or (B) being referred to as a "Uniloc Change of Recommendation") or (ii) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, or allow Uniloc to execute or enter into, any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement, or other similar agreement, arrangement, or understanding (A) constituting or related to, or that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal or (B) requiring it to abandon, terminate, or fail to consummate the Transactions.
- (e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to Uniloc EGM, Uniloc's board of directors may, if Uniloc's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of Uniloc's directors under applicable Law, make a Uniloc Change of Recommendation, including to approve or recommend a Superior Proposal; provided, that:
 - (i) Uniloc notifies Marathon that it intends to take such action, which notice must specify the reasons for taking such action and, if applicable, the material terms and conditions of such proposal (it being understood that any amendment to the financial terms or any other material term of such proposal will require a new notice and a new three-day response period); and
 - (ii) Marathon shall not have proposed, within three Business Days after receipt of such notice from Uniloc, to amend this Agreement to provide for terms which the board of directors of Uniloc determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, (A) to cause the Superior Proposal to no longer constitute a Superior Proposal, if applicable, or (B) if the proposed Uniloc Change of Recommendation is not in response to a Superior Proposal, that the failure to make such Uniloc Change of Recommendation would not reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of Uniloc's directors under applicable Law.

5. Conditions.

5.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Transactions. The obligations of Holdco and Marathon, on the one hand, and Uniloc, on the other hand, to consummate the Transactions are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Marathon and Uniloc, if permissible under applicable Law) of the following conditions:

- (a) each of the Holdco Approval, Marathon Stockholder Approval and the Uniloc Approval shall have been obtained;
- (b) no Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over Holdco, Marathon or Uniloc shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other material action enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the Transactions substantially on the terms contemplated by this Agreement;
- (c) all Consents, approvals or clearances listed in (i) Section 5.1(c) of the Marathon Disclosure Letter and (ii) Section 5.1(c) of the Uniloc Disclosure Letter shall have been obtained;
- (d) the Registration Statement shall have been declared effective by the SEC under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued by the SEC and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened in writing by the SEC that have not been withdrawn;
- (e) the board of directors of Holdco shall be comprised of three persons nominated by Marathon (one of whom shall be independent under the NASDAQ audit committee rules) and three persons nominated by the Uniloc (two of whom shall be independent under the NASDAQ audit committee rules) and a seventh member (who shall be independent under the NASDAQ audit committee rules) approved by a majority of the foregoing nominees;
- (f) the Restated Articles shall have been adopted;
- (g) the Ordinary Shares issuable in the Transactions shall have been authorized for listing on NASDAQ upon official notice of issuance; and
- (h) at least one month shall have elapsed following the Terms of Merger Publication Date.

5.2 Conditions to the Obligations of Uniloc. The obligations of Uniloc to consummate the Transactions are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Uniloc) of the following further conditions:

- (a) each of the representations and warranties of Holdco and Marathon shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (unless any such representation or warranty addresses matters only as of a particular date or with respect to a specific period in which event such representation or warranty shall be so true and correct in all material respects only as of such particular date or with respect to such specific period);
- (b) each of Holdco and Marathon shall have performed in all material respects its obligations hereunder required to be performed by it at or prior to the Closing;
- (c) Uniloc shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of Marathon, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, to the knowledge of such officer, the conditions in Section 5.2(a) and Section 5.2(b) have been satisfied;

- (d) since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred any Material Adverse Effect on Marathon; provided, that clause (b) of the definition of Material Adverse Effect shall be excluded from such definition for the purpose of determining the satisfaction of this condition;
- (e) Holdco or one of its Affiliates shall have made employment offers to the former officers of Uniloc; and
- (f) the Marathon Share Exchange shall be completed at the Closing immediately following the Lux Effective Time;

5.3 Conditions to the Obligations of Marathon and Holdco. The obligations of Marathon and Holdco to consummate the Transactions are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Marathon) of the following further conditions:

- (a) each of the representations and warranties of Uniloc shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (unless any such representation or warranty addresses matters only as of a particular date or with respect to a specific period in which event such representation or warranty shall be so true and correct only as of such particular date or with respect to such specific period);
- (b) Uniloc shall have performed in all material respects all of the respective obligations hereunder required to be performed by Uniloc at or prior to the Closing;
- (c) Marathon shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of Uniloc, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, to the knowledge of such officer, the conditions in Section 5.3(a) and Section 5.3(b) have been satisfied;
- (d) since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred a Material Adverse Effect on Uniloc; provided that, clause (b) of the definition of Material Adverse Effect shall be excluded from such definition for the purpose of determining the satisfaction of this condition;
- (e) Holdco or one of its Affiliates shall have made employment offers to former officers of Marathon;
- (f) the Contribution shall have been completed; and
- (g) Marathon shall have received an opinion of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that (i) the Transactions will constitute a “reorganization” within the meaning of Code Section 368(a)(1)(B); and (ii) Code Section 7874 (or any other U.S. federal Tax Law), existing regulations promulgated thereunder and official interpretation thereof as set forth in published guidance should not apply in such a manner so as to cause Holdco to be treated as a domestic corporation for U.S. federal Tax purposes. In rendering such opinion, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP will be entitled to receive and rely upon certificates containing representations, warranties and covenants of officers of each of Marathon and Uniloc, reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel and reasonably necessary to the giving of such opinion. In addition, on or before the Closing Date, there shall have been no change in applicable Law (whether or not such change in Law is yet effective) with respect to Code Section 7874 (or any other U.S. federal Tax Law), or official interpretation (whether or not such change in official interpretation is yet effective) thereof as set forth in published guidance by the IRS, and there shall have been no bills that would implement such a change passed by the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate and for which the time period for the President of the United States to sign or veto such bills has not yet elapsed, in each case, that, once effective, in the opinion of nationally recognized U.S. tax counsel, would cause Holdco to be treated as a domestic corporation for U.S. federal Tax purposes.

5.4 Frustration of Closing Conditions. Neither Marathon nor Uniloc may rely, either as a basis for not consummating the Transactions or terminating this Agreement and abandoning the Transactions, on the failure of any condition in Section 5.1, 5.2 or 5.3, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was proximately caused by a material breach of this Agreement by such party, or in the case of Marathon, by Marathon or Holdco.

6. Termination.

6.1 Termination. Anything herein or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding, this Agreement may be terminated (but the right to terminate this Agreement shall not be available to a party whose breach of its obligations under this Agreement is a proximate cause of the basis for termination under this Section 6.1 that the terminating party is relying upon) and the Transactions may be abandoned at any time prior to the Closing Date, whether before or after the Marathon Stockholder Approval or the Uniloc Approval:

- (a) by the mutual consent of Marathon and Uniloc;
- (b) by either Marathon or Uniloc:
 - (i) if the Closing shall not have occurred on or prior to 1 March 2016 (the "Termination Date"); provided however, that if the conditions in Section 5.1(d) shall not have been satisfied as of 15 January 2016, then (A) Holdco and Marathon or (B) Uniloc may extend the Termination Date to 31 May 2016 by providing the other party a written notice of such extension on or before the Termination Date as determined without such extension; or
 - (ii) if any Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over Marathon, Uniloc or Holdco shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action, in each case, such that the condition in Section 5.1(b) would not be satisfied, and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and non-appealable; or
 - (iii) (A) if the Marathon Stockholder Meeting shall have concluded without the Marathon Stockholder Approval having been obtained or (B) if the Holdco EGM shall have concluded without the Holdco Approval having been obtained; or
 - (iv) if the Uniloc EGM shall have concluded without the Uniloc Approval having been obtained.
- (c) by Marathon:
 - (i) upon a breach of any covenant or agreement on the part of Uniloc, or if any representation or warranty of Uniloc shall be untrue, in any case such that the conditions in Section 5.3(a) or 5.3(b) would not be satisfied (assuming that the date of such determination is the Closing Date); provided, that if such breach is curable by Uniloc through the exercise of commercially reasonable efforts and Uniloc continues to exercise such commercially reasonable efforts, Marathon may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 6.1(c)(i); or
 - (ii) if the board of directors of Uniloc shall have made a Uniloc Change of Recommendation or approved or recommended a Superior Proposal; or
 - (iii) after termination of the renegotiation period in Section 4.14(e)(ii), immediately prior to Marathon executing and delivering a definitive agreement embodying a Superior Proposal; or
- (d) by Uniloc:

- (i) upon a breach of any covenant or agreement on the part of Marathon, or if any representation or warranty of Marathon shall be untrue, in any case such that the conditions in Section 5.2(a) or 5.2(b) would not be satisfied (assuming that the date of such determination is the Closing Date); provided, that if such breach is curable by Marathon through the exercise of commercially reasonable efforts and Marathon continues to exercise such commercially reasonable efforts, Uniloc may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 6.1(d)(i); or
- (ii) if the board of directors of Marathon shall have publicly disclosed a Marathon Change of Recommendation, or approved or recommended a Superior Proposal; or
- (iii) after termination of the renegotiation period in Section 4.15(e)(ii), immediately prior to Uniloc executing and delivering a definitive agreement embodying a Superior Proposal.

6.2 Effect of Termination.

- (a) If this Agreement is terminated per Section 6.1, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given to the other party or parties specifying the provision hereof pursuant to which such termination is made (other than in the case of termination pursuant to Section 6.1(a)), and this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void, and there shall be no damages or liability on the part of Holdco, Uniloc or Marathon or their respective directors, officers, employees, stockholders, Representatives, agents or advisors. Section 4.11, Article 7, this Section 6.2, the Non-Disclosure Agreement and the Community of Interest Agreement shall survive termination of this Agreement. Nothing in this Section 6.2 shall relieve Marathon, Holdco or Uniloc from liability for fraud or willful and intentional (with the intent of breaching this Agreement) breach of this Agreement.
- (b) Marathon shall pay $2,500,000 (the “Termination Amount”) by wire transfer within two Business Days following termination of this Agreement per Section 6.1(c)(iii) or 6.1(d)(ii); provided, however, that such Termination Amount shall not be payable in the event of a Marathon Change of Recommendation in any way related to a change in applicable Law on or before the Closing Date (whether or not such change in Law is effective) with respect to Code Section 7874 (or any other U.S. federal Tax Law), or official interpretation (whether or not such change in official interpretation is yet effective) thereof as set forth in published guidance by the IRS, and there shall have been no bills that would implement such a change passed by the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate and for which the time period for the President of the United States to sign or veto such bills has not yet elapsed, in each case, that, once effective, in the opinion of nationally recognized U.S. tax counsel, would cause Holdco to be treated as a domestic corporation for U.S. federal Tax purposes.
- (c) Uniloc shall pay the Termination Amount by wire transfer within two Business Days following termination of this Agreement per Section 6.1(c)(ii) or 6.1(d)(iii).
- (d) If this Agreement is terminated per Section 6.1(b)(iii), Marathon shall reimburse all of Uniloc’s costs associated with the Transactions (“Costs”) within two Business Days following invoice by Uniloc (in an amount up to the Termination Amount) and if Marathon enters into a definitive agreement for an Acquisition Proposal within nine months of termination of this Agreement, then Marathon shall pay by wire transfer to Uniloc the difference between the Termination Amount and Costs within two Business Days following execution of such definitive agreement.

- (e) If this Agreement is terminated per Section 6.1(b)(iv), Uniloc shall reimburse all of Marathon's Costs within two Business Days following invoice by Marathon (in an amount up to the Termination Amount) and if Uniloc enters into a definitive agreement for an Acquisition Proposal within nine months of termination or files for a public offering within six months of termination of this Agreement, then Uniloc shall pay by wire transfer to Marathon the difference between the Termination Amount and Costs within two Business Days following execution of such definitive agreement or such filing, as the case may be.
- (f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, except for the ability to elect injunctive relief under Section 7.4(e), a party's right to receive payment of a fee under this Section 6.2 shall, in the circumstances in which such fee is owed per this Section 6.2, constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of such party and its Affiliates (and any other Person) against any other party hereto and their Affiliates and Representatives for any losses, damages or liabilities arising out of or related to this Agreement or the support agreements (or any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or obligation contained herein or therein and regardless of whether such breach is intentional, unintentional, willful or otherwise), the Transactions (or the abandonment thereof), the failure of the Closing to be consummated or in respect of any other agreement, document or theory of law or equity or in respect of any oral representations made or alleged to be made in connection herewith or therewith, whether in equity or at law, in contract, in tort or otherwise. Each party acknowledges that the covenants and agreements in this Section 6.2 are an integral part of the Transactions, and that without these covenants and agreements, the other party would not enter into this Agreement. All amounts not timely paid shall bear interest at the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal in effect on the date such payment was required to be made through the date such payment was actually received.

7. Miscellaneous.

- 7.1 Non-survival of Representations and Warranties. None of the representations and warranties in this Agreement or in any document delivered per this Agreement shall survive the Closing or the termination of this Agreement. This Section 7.1 shall not limit any covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement that by its terms is to be performed in whole or in part after the Closing or the termination of this Agreement.
- 7.2 Expenses. Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.2, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the consummation of the Transactions shall be paid by the party incurring such costs and expenses, whether or not the Transactions are consummated. Uniloc shall bear fifty five percent of filing fees and printing costs and Marathon shall bear forty five percent of such fees and costs.
- 7.3 Choice of Law. Other than the mandatory provisions of the NRS, Luxembourg Law and Australian Law relating to the applicable corporate formalities, this Agreement and the Transactions will be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware that are applicable to contracts made in and performed solely in Delaware.

7.4 Enforcement.

- (a) Any dispute arising under, related to or otherwise involving this Agreement or the Transactions will be litigated in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and waive trial by jury. The parties do not consent to mediate any disputes before the Court of Chancery.

- (b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if there is a determination that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware does not have subject matter jurisdiction over any dispute arising under this Agreement, the parties agree that: (i) such dispute will be adjudicated only by, and will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of, the Superior Court of Delaware of and for the County of New Castle; (ii) if the Superior Court of Delaware does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such dispute, then such dispute will be adjudicated only by, and will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of, the Complex Commercial Litigation Division of the Superior Court of the State of Delaware of and for the County of Newcastle; and (iii) if the Complex Commercial Litigation Division of the Superior Court of the State of Delaware does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such dispute, then such dispute will be adjudicated only by, and will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of, the United States District Court for the State of Delaware.
- (c) Each of the parties irrevocably (i) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of the Delaware courts in connection with any dispute arising under this Agreement, (ii) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for relief from the Delaware courts or any other court or governmental body and (iii) agrees that it will not bring any action arising under this Agreement in any court other than the Delaware courts. EACH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, THE NEGOTIATION OR ENFORCEMENT HEREOF OR THE TRANSACTIONS.
- (d) Process may be served in the manner specified in Section 7.5, such service will deemed effective on the date of such notice, and each party irrevocably waives any defenses or objections it may have to service in such manner.
- (e) The parties irrevocably stipulate that irreparable damage would occur if any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed per their specific terms. Accordingly, each party will be entitled to specific performance of the terms hereof in addition to any other remedy to which it is entitled at law or in equity.
- (f) The court shall award attorneys' fees and expenses and costs to the substantially prevailing party in any action (including appeals) for the enforcement or interpretation of this Agreement. If there are cross claims in such action (including appeals), the court will determine which party is the substantially prevailing party as to the action as a whole and award fees, expenses and costs to such party.

7.6 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as provided in Section 4.7, this Agreement is solely for the benefit of the parties. Except as provided in Section 4.7, no other Person will be entitled to rely on this Agreement or to anticipate the benefits of this Agreement as a third party beneficiary hereof.

7.7 Assignment. No party may assign, delegate or otherwise transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations under this Agreement in whole or in part (whether by operation of law or otherwise), without the prior written consent of the other parties. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Any assignment in violation of this Section 7.7 will be null and void.

7.8 No Waiver. No failure or delay in the exercise or assertion of any right hereunder will impair such right or be construed to be a waiver of, or acquiescence in, or create an estoppel with respect to any breach of any representation, warranty or covenant herein, nor will any single or partial exercise of any such right preclude other or further exercise thereof or of any other right. All rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

7.9 Severability. Any term or provision hereof that is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other authority to be invalid, void or unenforceable in any situation in any jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions hereof or the validity or enforceability of the invalid, void or unenforceable term or provision in any other situation or in any other jurisdiction. If the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or other authority declares any term or provision hereof invalid, void or unenforceable, the court or other authority making such determination will have the power to and will, subject to the discretion of such body, reduce the scope, duration, area or applicability of the term or provision, to delete specific words or phrases, or to replace any invalid, void or unenforceable term or provision with a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

The parties intend that each provision of this Agreement will be given full separate and independent effect. Although the same or similar subject matters may be addressed in different provisions of this Agreement, the parties intend that, except as expressly provided herein, each such provision will be read separately, be given independent significance and not be construed as limiting any other provision of this Agreement (whether or not more general or more specific in scope, substance or content). Headings are used for convenience only and will not in any way affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. The new company's combined assets under management will be balanced between patents purchased from third parties and patents internally developed. Marathon Group will begin with a current portfolio of 662 patent assets. These patented ideas cover products and methods in the automotive, medical device, software, identity management, device authentication, mobile communication and internet fields of use.

A highly experienced management team will lead the combined company. Douglas B. Croxall will be Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Marathon Group. Craig S. Etchegoyen, Uniloc's current Chief Executive Officer, will be the Chief Intellectual Property Officer of the combined company. Francis P. Knuettel II, Chief Financial Officer of Marathon, will assume new responsibilities as Chief Operating Officer of the combined company. Uniloc's Chief Financial Officer, Drake L. Turner, will be the Chief Financial Officer of Marathon Group. Together, the team has a proven track record of leadership and nearly fifty years of patent licensing/litigation experience.

The new company will have active litigation against 119 infringers, a 164% increase over Marathon's stand-alone cases and 101 scheduled trials through 2017.

The combined company will leverage Uniloc's and Marathon's low-cost highly effective network of licensing professionals and patent enforcement experts.

Under the terms of the agreement, former Marathon equity owners are expected to own approximately 45 percent of the fully-diluted capitalization of the combined company. The remaining 55 percent of the fully-diluted capitalization would be owned by former Uniloc equity owners. Shares of Marathon common stock and Uniloc equity will be converted into Marathon Group ordinary shares on a one-for-one basis.

Marathon Group's board of directors will be comprised of 7 directors, 3 from Marathon, 3 from Uniloc and one new independent director.

"This combination is the next logical step in the growth of Uniloc," said Craig Etchegoyen. "Together, our best-in-class management team and a collective deep understanding of the patent business create a platform for innovative growth. Our software engines providing predictive patent analytics and deep insight into patent quality, allows us to leverage our small team to manage the combined company's growing asset base, while maximizing return on investment."

"This combination positions Marathon Group for greater success than either company could have achieved independently," said Doug Croxall. "Our common culture of a lean workforce, commitment to providing a return on innovation and an international platform, are the foundations for the future success of the company."

The business combination is subject to approval by both Marathon stockholders and Uniloc shareholders and the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including government and regulatory approval and NASDAQ approval of listing of the ordinary shares. The parties expect to complete the transaction in late 2015 or the first quarter of 2016.
