Item 4.01 Change in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On December 9, 2011, upon recommendation from our board of directors, we dismissed PLS CPA, A Professional Corporation (formerly Chang G. Park, CPA) ("PLS") as our independent registered public accounting firm. PLS's dismissal was effective immediately. PLS had previously been engaged as the principal accountant to audit our financial statements for the period from February 23, 2010 (Inception) through October 31, 2010.

On December 9, 2011, the Company engaged KBL, LLP ("KBL") as its independent registered public accounting firm for the Company's fiscal year ending October 31, 2011. The change in the Company's independent registered public accounting firm was approved by the Company's Board of Directors on December 9, 2011.

PLS's report on our financial statements for the period from February 23, 2010 (Inception) to October 31, 2010 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was it qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the report was qualified as to our ability to continue as a going concern.

From the period as of, and from, February 23, 2010 (Inception) through October 31, 2010, the fiscal year ended October 31, 2011, and during the subsequent periods through the date of dismissal, there were no disagreements with PLS on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of PLS, would have caused it to make reference to the matter in connection with its report on our financial statements for the period from February 23, 2010 (Inception) to October 31, 2010.

We have made the contents of this Current Report on Form 8-K available to PLS and requested that PLS furnish us a letter addressed to the SEC as to whether PLS agrees or disagrees with, or wishes to clarify our expression of, our views, or containing any additional information. A copy of PLS's letter to the SEC is included as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
